

Anti-Racism Policy

Collins Creek Public School is committed to eradicating any forms of racial discrimination. All staff are aware of this policy and fully support the goal of having freedom from racial discrimination, vilification, and harassment in our school environment.

All schools have an Anti-Racism Officer who has been trained to respond in line with the NSW Department of Education's Anti-Racism Policies and procedures and uphold the expectation to eliminate instances of Racism and the impact it may have on individuals and the wider community.
